Reigning in Life – In Living the Church Life

- By living under the rule of the divine life, by reigning in life, we can live the church life.
 - There are many divisions among Christians today because the receiving of the believers is not under the restriction of the divine life.
 - We must receive the believers according to God's receiving (chapter 14).
 - Our receiving of the believers under the reigning in life is first according to God's receiving and then according to Christ's receiving (chapter 15).
 - The strong ones need to bear the weaknesses of the weak, not pleasing themselves but pleasing the brothers and sisters for their building up.
 - We should be of the same mind toward one another according to Christ Jesus so that with one accord we may glorify God in receiving one another.
 - Paul set up a pattern of living the church life for the living of the Body life.
 - When we are under the ruling of the divine life, we will spontaneously preach the gospel.
 - Paul first preached the gospel to the Gentiles and then brought them into the fellowship of the Body of Christ with the Jewish churches.
 - Paul was blending together many saints and many churches under his ministry for the practical living of the Body of Christ in the universal fellowship of the Body.
 - There is the need for all the believers who have received the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness to practice the restriction and limitation in the divine life.
- In the conclusion of the book of Romans, the glory to the consummated God indicates that the consummated God is glorified in the humanity of the glorified church under its reigning in life in the fulfillment of the eternal economy of God in carrying out His mystery hidden in the ages.
