Laboring on the All-Inclusive Christ Typified by the Good Land for the Building Up of the Church as the Body of Christ, for the Reality and the Manifestation of the Kingdom, and for the Bridge to Make Herself Ready for the Lord's Coming—Week 2

The Process of Transformation

If we consider the history of the children of Israel, we will not be disappointed with ourselves. Instead, we will realize that we can be compared to caterpillars in a cocoon undergoing the process of transformation. Do not be disappointed, but worship the Lord from within your “cocoon.” We all are “caterpillars” experiencing the divine work of transformation. The more this work progresses, the more we emerge from our cocoon. Some of the young ones may have only a small part free from the cocoon, whereas other saints have a greater percentage of their being outside the cocoon. Praise the Lord that the caterpillars are being transformed and that the cocoons are gradually disappearing! This is the real situation in the church life in the Lord's recovery.

Because we are partly in the cocoon and partly out of it, sometimes we are discouraged, and at other times we are encouraged. When we are mindful of the cocoon or of the caterpillar in the cocoon, we become disappointed. But when we see the butterfly emerging from the cocoon, we are encouraged and happy. In the Lord's recovery we are gradually coming out of our cocoons. Many of us can testify that, by contrast, when we were in organized religion, we did not know anything about transformation, nor did we have any concept of caterpillars in cocoons being changed into beautiful butterflies. The Lord's recovery certainly is necessary to bring the saints into the real experience of transformation.

If we are faithful to the Lord, the recovery will become more and more prevailing. Recently, I gave a number of messages on the world situation. If we have the proper insight into the world situation, we will see that the time is right for the Lord's recovery to spread throughout the earth. Even all the modern means of transportation and communication can be used by the Lord for His recovery. Therefore, the time is ripe for us, especially the younger ones, to spread the Lord's recovery. Where can Christians today hear both the Lord's word of grace and His word of righteousness? In so many places the people practice idolatry; they eat, drink, and rise up to play. But in the recovery God is speaking. I believe that in the coming years the recovery, the Lord's ultimate move on earth, will be very prevailing. The Lord desires to gather those who love Him and who seek Him and make them His living testimony.

Our Need to Grow in Life

We in the Lord's recovery need to grow in life. To grow is to come out of the cocoon. To grow in life is also to eliminate the old generation and to be renewed in our mind, emotion, and will. This involves transformation. Transformation is a matter of eliminating the old generation, the old man, and putting on the new generation, the new man. This is to fully come out of the cocoon and be released as a butterfly.

Today we are enjoying Christ, but we have not yet possessed Him as the all-inclusive land. If we would possess Christ in this way, our old man must die out, and the new man must come forth. Praise the Lord that the old man is dying out day by day! Many of us can testify that since we have come into the Lord's recovery, a change has taken place within us. This change is the dying out of the old man and the growing up of the new man. This is transformation, the growth in life (Excerpts from The Life-Study of First Corinthians (2nd Ed), Msg 48).

Prayer Burdens

1. Lord, grant us a good heart full of faith to possess the good land. We cannot do it by ourselves, but You can make it in us. May we all be careful, watchful, and prayerful regarding our heart of unbelief.
2. Lord, we believe with full assurance of faith that we are well able to possess the land and eat Anakim as bread. We trust in Your promises and commit ourselves utterly to You. Keep us without blemish from this day until Your return.
3. Guard us from idols. Free us from anything that occupies our heart. Expose the enemy in his use of self-beautification that usurps us and leads us to idolatry. May everything You've given us be for the worship and glory of God.
4. Lord, have mercy on us. You are the only object of worship. Speak to us face to face and reveal to us what is in Your heart. May we all be proper persons that would fit to be Your companion.
5. Lord, we give ourselves to be renewed in the Word day by day. We put on the new man as our old man decays. Everyday we simply take You, keep You, and hold fast to You.
6. Train us in matters of fearing You, walking in Your ways, loving and serving You with our whole heart and soul, keeping Your commandments and statutes, circumcising the foreskin of our hearts, not being stiff-necked, holding fast to You and calling on Your name.
