ISSUE # 12 | MARCH 22, 2026 | VOLUME XIV

*Go therefore and disciple all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
~ Matt.28:19*

All the results of our work should be measured by life. Only that which comes out of life is recognized by God. In Matthew 7 the Lord said that some prophesied, and some cast out demons, yet He never knew them (vv. 22-23). Furthermore, the apostle Paul in Philippians 1 says that some preach Christ out of envy and strife (v. 15). Such works undoubtedly did not come out of life, but out of man's doings. We cannot and should not do such work. We should learn to live in the life of the Lord and allow His life to lead us to do His work. We should not aspire to some great work or to some accomplishment in the work. We should have only one desire—to know and experience the life of the Lord more, and to be able to share with others what we have known and experienced so that they too may obtain something. When we work, we should not establish a work; neither should we set up an organization. Our work should just be the releasing of the life of the Lord, the imparting and supplying of the Lord's life to others. May the Lord have mercy upon us and open our eyes to see that the central work of God in this age is that man may gain His life and grow and mature in His life. Only the work that comes out of His life can reach His eternal standard and be accepted by Him.

The Meaning of the Fellowship of Life

Before we define the fellowship of life, one thing must be made clear. The life of God was originally in God, and later it entered into us who belong to God. Is this life of God that entered into us, then, a part or a whole? Our final judgment is that it is neither partial nor the whole, but that it is flowing.

Take for example the electricity in a light bulb. Is it the partial electricity, or is it the whole electricity from the power plant? The answer is that it is neither, because the same electricity that is in the power plant is also in these light bulbs. It is an electric current flowing continuously. Once the current stops, these light bulbs will cease to give light. Take another example: the blood in my hand, is it local blood, or is it the blood of the whole body? If it were local blood, it then would have no communication; and if it were the blood of the whole body, it would also have no communication. But it is the circulating blood, the flowing blood. It is the blood of the whole body continuously circulating and unceasingly flowing. It is the whole as well as a part; and it is a part as well as a whole. So also is the life of God within us. It flowed out from God, and it flowed into thousands of saints, including us. This flowing life is from God; it passes through God, and it passes through thousands of saints, including us. Thus, it causes us to have fellowship with God and with thousands of saints.

The Function of the Fellowship of Life

What is the function or use of the fellowship of life? It is to inwardly supply us with all that is in the life of God or all that is in God. All the fullness in God is supplied to us through the fellowship of life. The more we allow the flowing of life to flow in us, the more we are inwardly supplied with the fullness of God. Such supply of the fellowship of life is like the circulating of the blood as the supply of the body and like the flowing of electricity as the supply of the lights.

The sense of life proves whether we are living in God or not. And the fellowship of life continuously supplies us with the things of life. Whenever your supply of life is cut off, it means that your fellowship of life is interrupted. If we continuously live in the fellowship of life, our supply of life will come continuously and unceasingly.

The fellowship of life and the sense of life are mutually related. As soon as the fellowship of life is interrupted, the sense of life causes us to feel that we have lost the supply of life. When the fellowship of life is not interrupted, the sense of life causes us to feel that we have the supply of life. Therefore, whether we are living in the fellowship of life and whether we have the supply of life depends entirely on what the sense of life indicates. The more we live in the fellowship of life, the keener is our sense of life, and the more we are supplied with life.

Concerning the fellowship of life, it is sufficient to say this much. We should remember that the sense of life always tests and proves us, whereas the fellowship of life always supplies us. Our condition before the Lord is determined by the sense of life; and the supply of our spiritual life is received through the fellowship of life (Excerpts from The Knowledge of Life, ch 6).

PRAYER BURDENS:

1. Lord, we put away our private interests that we may have genuine fellowship that issues from You. Carry us by the Spirit in our spirit into the flow of the water of life and have corporate participation in the divine life.
2. Teach us to have vertical and horizontal fellowship, not to correct us but to mold us and reconstitute us from being individualistic, independent, or divisive. Restrict us in the fellowship of the Body to keep the oneness of the Body.
3. Lord, we exercise our spirit to have real fellowship with one another. Remove all sorts of gossip and death among us and usher us into an honest and sincere intercession under a divine fellowship.
4. Lord, we take You as our sin offering – the One who put to death sin, Satan, the old man, and the flesh. Cause us to realize that we are a totality of sin and are under condemnation. We come to You as light and confess our condition.
5. Save us from any work that is out of our own and independent from You. Bring us into realization that anything we do out of ourselves is sinful in Your eyes. May we all give ourselves to be for You without hidden motives.
6. Lord, we take You as our trespass offering – the One who redeemed us, faithful to forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all impurities. Continue to supply us with life that we may brought into more fellowship and receive light.
