The Beast out of the Sea	Vision of the Great Image	Four Beasts out of the Mediterranean Sea		Vision concerning a Ram and a Male Goat with its successors		The northern King	The Prince
And I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads, and on his horns ten diadems, and on his heads names of blasphemy. And the beast which I saw was like a leopard , and his feet like those of a bear , and his mouth like the mouth of a lion . [Totality of the Beast]	Head was of fine gold , signifies Nebuchadnezzar, the founder and the king of Babylon	Like a lion					The people of the prince who will come will destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end of it will be with a flood, and even to the end there will be war; desolations are determined. And he will make a firm covenant with the many for one week ; and in the middle of the week he will cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease and will replace the sacrifice and the oblation with abominations of the desolator, even until the complete destruction that has been determined is poured out upon the desolator.
	Breast and its arms of silver , signify Medo-Persia.	Resembling a bear .		A ram , standing before the river, and he had two horns.
	Abdomen and its thighs of bronze , signify Greece, including Macedonia.	Like a leopard		A male goat , coming from the west over the face of the whole earth without touching the ground; and the goat had a conspicuous horn between his eyes.	And the male goat became very great. But once he became strong, the great horn was broken, and in its place four conspicuous ones came up toward the four winds of heaven. And out of one of them came forth a little horn , which grew very great toward the south, toward the east, and toward that which is beautiful.	The king will do as he pleases; and he will exalt himself and magnify himself above every god, and against the God of gods he will speak extraordinary things; and he will prosper until the indignation is complete; for what has been determined will be done.
	Legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of clay , signify the Roman Empire with its last ten kings	There was a fourth beast , and it had ten horns .	Then there was another horn , a small one , which came up among them; and three of the first horns were uprooted from before it.
