THE PROPHECY OF THE THIRD “SEVEN”— OF THE SEVEN TRUMPETS

HYMN: 1354

The seven trumpets are the contents of the seventh seal, which are the answer to the prayer of the martyred saints.

The First Trumpet—Judgment on the Earth

The Second Trumpet—Judgment on the Sea

The Third Trumpet—Judgment on the Rivers

The Fourth Trumpet—Judgment on the Sun, Moon, and Stars

The Fifth Trumpet—the First Woe as Judgment on Men

The Sixth Trumpet—the Second Woe as Further Judgment on Men

The Seventh Trumpet—the Conclusion of the Eternal Economy of the Processed Triune God

We need to give heed to this prophetic word as to a lamp shining in a dark place. Then we will know where we are. The prophetic word will guide us to pass through the dark night until the day of the Lord's appearing dawns and the morning star rises in our hearts

Hymn 1354 When the Lord descends from heaven

1

When the Lord descends from heaven,
and God's trumpet sound we hear,
Those who sleep will rise, and death will swallowed be.
When the Lord descends from heaven,
raptured we will be who live,
And our bodies be transformed in liberty.

When the Lord will come in glory
We will see His glorious body;
When the Lord will come in glory,
To transfigure all His sons, we'll have a share.

When the Lord descends from heaven,
then the morning bright will dawn,
This dark night will pass, and weeping will be o'er.
When the Lord descends from heaven, days of glory will begin;
Sighing and corruption gone forevermore.

3

E'er the Lord will come from heaven,
the bright morning star will shine,
Those who watch escape the trial, gain the prize.
Then the Lord will come and as the Sun
of righteousness will reign;
Earth will be restored, God's mercy realize.

4

Soon the Lord will come from heaven;
may we watch and wait with prayer,
Loins be girt about, and lamps be burning bright.
Soon the Lord will come from heaven,
may we serve Him faithfully,
Thus the ministry fulfill, our gifts incite.

Scripture Readings:

Rev. 8:1 And when He opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

Rev. 8:2 And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them.

Rev. 8:3 And another Angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer, and much incense was given to Him to offer with the prayers of all the saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne.

Rev. 8:4 And the smoke of the incense went up with the prayers of the saints out of the hand of the Angel before God.

Rev. 8:5 And the Angel took the censer and filled it with the fire of the altar and cast it to the earth; and there were thunders and voices and lightnings and an earthquake.

Rev. 8:6 And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to trumpet.

Rev. 8:7 And the first trumpeted, and there was hail and fire mingled with blood, and it was cast to the earth; and the third part of the earth was burned up, and the third part of the trees were burned up, and all green grass was burned up.

Rev. 8:8 And the second angel trumpeted, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea; and the third part of the sea became blood,

Rev. 8:9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea and had life died, and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

Rev. 8:10 And the third angel trumpeted, and a great star fell out of heaven, burning like a torch, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers and upon the springs of waters.

Rev. 8:11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood; and the third part of the waters became wormwood, and many of the men died from the waters because they were made bitter.

Rev. 8:12 And the fourth angel trumpeted, and the third part of the sun and the third part of the moon and the third part of the stars were smitten, so that the third part of them would be darkened and the day would not appear for the third part of it, and the night likewise.

Rev. 8:13 And I saw, and I heard an eagle flying in mid-heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to those who dwell on the earth because of the remaining trumpet sounds of the three angels who are about to trumpet!
