

The Normal Christian Life

The Eternal Purpose

- Rom. 3:23 – For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God
  - God's purpose for man was glory.
  - The result of sin is that we forfeit God's glory.
  - The result of redemption is that we are qualified again for glory.

Firstborn Among Many Brethren

- Rom. 8:29 – Because those whom He foreknew, He also predestinated to be conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the Firstborn among many brothers;
  - God's objective was that His Son Jesus Christ might be the firstborn among many brethren, all of whom should be conformed to His image.
- The Father sent the Son in order that the only begotten might also be the first begotten, and the beloved Son have many brethren.
- God is seeking full-grown sons. Furthermore, He wants them to share His glory.
  - Sonship—the full expression of His Son—is God's goal in the many sons.
  - He accomplishes this by justifying them and then by glorifying them.

The Grain of Wheat

- How could God's only begotten Son become His first begotten?
  - John 12:24 – Truly, truly, I say to you, Unless the grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it abides alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit.
  - The grain was the Lord Jesus. In resurrection the only begotten grain became the first begotten grain, and from the one grain there have sprung many grains.

The Choice that Confronted Adam

- Adam was created morally neutral—neither sinful nor holy, but innocent—and God put two trees in the garden of Eden so that he might exercise free choice.
  - These two trees typify two deep principles; they represent two planes of life, the Divine and the human.
  - If Adam should take of the tree of life, he would partake of the life of God and become a “son” of God, in the sense of having in him a life that derived from God.

- If Adam takes the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, then he would develop his own manhood along natural lines apart from God.

Adam's Choice – The Reason for the Cross

- The consequence of Adam's decision was death rather than life because the choice he had made involved complicity with Satan and brought him under the judgment of God.
  - In Adam we all become sinners, equally dominated by Satan, equally subject to the law of sin and death, and equally deserving of the wrath of God.
- We must all go to the Cross, because what is in us by nature is a self-life, subject to the law of sin.
  - God has put us all in Christ and crucified Him as the last Adam.
  - Now He is in the Spirit and every one of us can receive Him, and it is by partaking of His resurrection life that we are constituted children of God.

He that Hath the Son Hath the Life

- In our relationship to God, the question is not whether we are bad or good, more or less, but simply, are you a man?
  - If our life is on a lower plane than that of God's life, then we cannot belong to the Divine family.
  - Our only hope as men is to receive the Son of God, and when we do so His life in us will constitute us sons of God.

They are All of One

- God wants sons who shall be joint-heirs with Christ in glory.
- Heb 2:11 – For both He who sanctifies and those who are being sanctified are all of One, for which cause He is not ashamed to call them brothers,
  - The two parties mentioned “He who sanctifies” and “those who are being sanctified” are “all of One.”
- The first begotten Son and the many sons are all “out of” the one Source of life.
  - It is for this reason that we can live a life of holiness, for it is not our own life that has been changed, but the life of God that has been imparted to us.
- Praise the Lord! Redemption has made us partakers of the very life of God Himself.
