

Hear These Dreams

1 Hear these dreams which Joseph dreamed of you -
Sheaves and stars, even the sun and moon,
Bowing down, oh, what a dream God gave!
He sees you bright and shinning, full of light!

Part
One Brothers saw the dreamer come;
Their father's treasure, younger son.
To banish him they made a plan
And sold him to a caravan.
Joseph was lost, they then implied;
By lying made their father cry.
Into a pit their brother they threw,
Still all of Joseph's dreams came true!

2 Joseph's dream became his way of life.
Prisoner, he stood up tall and bright.
Excellent! He learned the lessons
Needed for him shine to all and be a blessing.

Part
Two Imprisoned, so unfair and cruel;
Misunderstood and tested, too.
Betrayed, forgotten, he endured.
God blessed him - he administrated:
For all the prison Joseph cared;
The dreaming son was now prepared!
By speaking Joseph was released;
Interpreting the Pharaoh's dreams!

Luke 18:1 ...They ought always to pray and not lose heart.
