

When David was troubled

When Saul troubled David, God gave him a friend.

Yes, Jonathan, Saul's son, provided for him:

His armor, his belt, plus his sword and his bow.

This help rendered to David equipped him to go.

A friend who forewarned him when trouble was near,

And strengthened his trust in God, calming his fear.

Young David and Jonathan promised anew:

The Lord is between us forever, it's true!

Proverbs 18:24b

...But there is a true friend that sticks closer than a brother.