

Enjoying God as food by reading the Word

Mikneiah

In the universe the Lord made everything in pairs. There is a female and male, front and back, there is top and bottom, there is positive and negative. Similarly, enjoying God has two tracks not one. One track begins in our spirit and is unrelated to physical things, but the other track begins with black and white letters and ends in the spirit. In order to enjoy God we need these two parallel tracks.

Beatrice

The kind of Bible we have depends on the kind of person we are. Since we desire to be persons who eat, drink, absorb, and breathe in God, we need a drastic change in our concept concerning the Bible. We need to see that the Bible is the food God has given us.

Gabriel

If we want to enjoy God, we must learn to use both feet. We must learn to take both tracks. We must learn to pray, and we must learn to read the Word.
